SUBJECT: Interview with Outcry Witness [REDACTED]

On 29 November 2011, Reporting Detective Shawn KENNEDY #21270 conducted a telephonic interview with outcry witness [REDACTED], who provided the following identifiers:

[REDACTED]
F/1/28 D.O.B. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

The cell phone number [REDACTED] was identified on the complainant's phone log as outbound calls on October 07, 2011 at 12:24AM, 12:33AM, 12:38AM and 12:39AM.

The following is a summary, not verbatim, of the incident that [REDACTED] described to Reporting Detective. [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] called her asking for a ride because she was left out on the street. [REDACTED] stated that prior to picking up [REDACTED] by the Dan Ryan expressway, around 59th street or 79th street, nothing of the incident was disclosed to her over the telephone. [REDACTED] dropped [REDACTED] off at South Shore hospital around 0100 hours on 07 October 2011. During the ride to the hospital, [REDACTED] informed [REDACTED] that she was in a car accident and taken to the police station. The same police officers offered her a ride home. While en route, they parked their police vehicle under a viaduct. The officer on the passenger side of the vehicle unzipped his pants and asked for oral sex. This same police officer had flirted with [REDACTED] earlier. [REDACTED] did not recall anything else about the incident because it was very late.
